Literary entries should be emailed with attachment to concordia.aerie.lit@gmail.com. Current Concordia students should use their eagle email account. The subject line should read Aerie Submission. The email should include the author’s name, title of creative piece(s), genre and contact information, and the attached document must be a .doc or .docx file. The file name should be the author’s last name. More than one poem or story may be attached to the same email.
