Student Rights and Responsibilities

Below are the rights and responsibilities regarding disability access as Concordia University, Irvine for all students registered with the DLRC. Please read and initial the line to the left of each statement indicating your understanding. Sign, date, and return this form to the DLRC. The Director will discuss any questions you may have regarding these rights and responsibilities.

Rights

_____ I understand that my participation with the DLRC is entirely voluntary.

_____ I understand that I have equal access to any and all courses, programs, jobs, services, activities, and facilities offered by Concordia University, Irvine.

_____ I understand that I have the right to confidentiality of all records regarding my disability, except as required or permitted by law.

_____ I understand that the DLRC will provide assistance in removing any physical, academic, and attitudinal barriers.

Responsibilities

_____ It is my responsibility to comply with policies and procedures found on the DLRC website: www.cui.edu/dlrc.

_____ It is my responsibility to follow the procedure for requesting accommodations for each semester. Failure to do so will result in the DLRC being unable to mediate any issues that may arise between me and faculty or staff.

_____ It is my responsibility to provide the DLRC with the required documentation and/or forms to verify my disability and support my request for accommodations.

_____ It is my responsibility, like all Concordia University Irvine students, to follow the university’s Student Code of Conduct which can be found on www.cui.edu

_____ It is my responsibility to meet the academic and non-academic standards for admission to, participation in, and fulfillment of essential requirements of university programs or activities.
