Additional program fees include books and supplies, (approx. $150 /course) and well as personal living expenses. Travel and visa fees for your trip / year in China are the student’s responsibility and are estimated to be approx. $1,500. This fee is reimbursed by the student’s employer at the end of their year in China. Additional personal funds should be taken with you to China. We estimate taking $3,000 along to cover any unforeseen costs you may encounter and need access to funds for. Concordia University student accounts representative, Edgar Lopez (edgar.lopez@cui.edu) and also the graduate financial aid counselor, Ken Dillinger (ken.dillinger@cui.edu) are available to assist you in this financial process.
