Please complete the following essay question as part of your application.

1. Creative people state that taking risks often promotes important discoveries in their lives or their work. Discuss a risk that has led to a significant change (positive or negative) in your personal or academic life.

Concordia University seeks to develop wise, honorable and cultivated citizens. The university understands its mission to be guided by the Word of God, particularly Christ's Great Commission. Responsible behavior of all individuals, at all times, includes integrity, self-respect and willingness to support and direct fellow students whose actions seem harmful to themselves or the university community. Concordia University students come from a wide variety of backgrounds, including a variety of religious backgrounds, but all students are expected to be of high character, of good reputation and of earnest intent to act in a manner consistent with the university’s principles and practices.

I hereby certify that the information set forth in this application is true to the best of my knowledge. All documents or other materials which relate to my application for admission become the property of Concordia University. If admitted to CUI, I hereby agree to abide by all the rules and regulations set forth by the University, particularly those articulated in the catalog and student handbook.
