Requirements of Forensics Scholarship Recipients

Scholarships are given in increments of $2,000, $4,000 or $6,000.00 per year. Students who fulfill the requirements retain their award for the duration of their education at Concordia. Those who receive a scholarship for forensics competition must:

- (1) abide by the terms of CUI Forensics Team Squad Handbook (a copy is available upon request).
- (2) remain a full-time student (defined as a minimum of 12 units per semester).
- (3) maintain a minimum 2.50 Grade Point Average.
- (4) attend weekly squad meetings, weekly practice sessions, and serve as a positive team influence.
- (5) attend a minimum number of tournaments (typically 3 per semester) while competing in the minimum number of events. Students prepare and compete in one of three combinations:
 - a. Debate ONLY – NPDA-style Parliamentary Debate and NFA style Lincoln-Douglas Debate.
 - b. Speech ONLY – Three AFA/NFA Individual Events, two of which must be prepared events.
 - c. Speech & Debate – NPDA-style Debate and two IE events.
