

Lutheran Women's Missionary League

South Wisconsin District

HURRY – TIME IS RUNNING OUT!

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS NOW AVAILABLE

The South Wisconsin District LWML has been blessed to be able to award scholarships each year since 1991 to women preparing for church work in the LCMS. An endowment was established to assist women with their undergraduate education. The number and amount of scholarships varies from year to year depending on the funds available that year. Applications are currently being accepted for the 2011-2012 school year.

Who may apply? Active female members of congregations of the South Wisconsin District of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod who are residents of the SWD prior to college and are preparing for *full-time service in the LCMS are encouraged to apply. An applicant must be enrolled as an undergraduate at one of the educational institutions of the Synod for the 2011-2012 school year. (*Full-time service in the church is defined as any position available through the Board of Assignments of the Synod.)

How to apply? Complete the LWML application forms and return them to the SWD LWML Scholarship Committee. All applications and references must be postmarked by April 30, 2011. Application instructions and forms are available online at the South Wisconsin District LWML website: www.swd-lwml.org or by contacting the committee chairman, Carol Pape. E-mail: carolpape333@hotmail.com. Phone: 262-781-1296.

Mail: SWD LWML Scholarship Committee c/o Carol Pape
4440 Coral Drive
Brookfield, WI 53045

All undergraduate women studying for full-time service in the LCMS are encouraged to apply. If you know anyone who qualifies for this exciting opportunity, please share this information with her.