Thank you for your interest in becoming part of The Concordia Courier Editorial Staff for the 2013-2014 academic year.

The Courier is the campus’ student newspaper published bi-weekly for a total of 7 issues per semester, 14 per academic year. The Editorial Staff is made up of 5 members: Editor-in-Chief, Assistant/Layout Editor and 3 Section Editors.

The Editor-in-Chief oversees all workings of the Courier, specifically the roles of the Assistant/Layout Editor and Section Editors. The Editor-in-Chief and Faculty Advisor may modify the roles and duties of the staff members to better fit the vision and goals of the newspaper.

Editorial staff positions are paid positions on campus. Each of the roles requires writing articles for publication in The Courier, attendance at staff meetings, communication with students in the Journalism course, and editing (specifically on layout weekends).

Please be sure you are: 1.) In good standing with the university, and 2.) Agree to abide by the L.E.A.D. Agreement for all student leaders before continuing on with the application process.

Timeline of the application process:

*Feb. 15 – Applications available

*March 15 – Applications due to ashlie.siefkes@cui.edu

*March 20 – April 3 – Interviews

*April 5 – Editorial Staff announced

*April 10 – First meeting @ 10:30 a.m. in the Lambda Lounge
