

The following labs and studio arts activities will be offered in person during the Fall 2020 semester. The lectures for these courses will be online until Concordia University Irvine can move into in-person, dual mode teaching and learning. The lab and activity components of these courses are what will be in person starting August 31. If students cannot attend the labs or activities, they should contact their instructor to find out what they will do remotely instead. All other labs and studio arts activities not listed below will be online starting on August 31.
