Creating a Semester Registration Plan:

* Note: creating and editing a semester registration plan in MyRecords is not the same as registering. Adding a course to your semester registration plan does not guarantee you have a spot in the course. Making a semester registration plan in MyRecords will not update your Grad Plan in Degree Works. Consult your advisor before registering. ****

Creating a Semester Registration Plan is not required but is highly recommended as it makes registration go much faster. Do this before registration opens or before meeting with your academic advisor.

- Log into MyRecords
- Click “Student”
- Click on the tile that says “Registration & Planning”
- Click “Plan Ahead”
- Select the semester for which you want to create a semester registration plan from the dropdown menu

- If your advisor has created a Grad Plan for you in Degree Works, this will be pre-loaded for you. You can view this in the “Degree Works Plans” tab
 - Click the “Degree Works Plans” tab. If the menu doesn’t appear automatically, click the 3 lines at the top (it may be easier to view these screens landscape)

- Click “Add to Plan” and find the section you want to your semester registration plan
- Click “Add” to add the CRN to your semester registration plan

- After you add one class, click the “Panels” button on the bottom left to collapse the Summary so you can continue building your plan

- You may need to click the 3 lines on the top right to see more of the screen

- Click “Return to Plan” to access your Degree Works Grad Plan and add more sections to your semester registration plan

- Clicking “Search Again” will allow you to search through all sections that are offered in the semester you are planning for. You can add these to your plan.
 - Click “Save Plan” and name the semester registration plan
 - You can add notes and create up to 5 semester registration plans each semester
- If you do not have a Grad Plan in Degree Works, you can use the “Find Classes” tab to search for courses to add to your semester registration plan
